Fermilab's main entrance is located at the intersection of Kirk Road and Pine Street in Batavia, Illinois, about 45 miles west of Chicago. Photo I.D. is required to enter Fermilab. Please tell the guard at the checkpoint that you have an appointment in the IARC Building.

Once through the security checkpoint, continue on Pine Street. At the first stop sign (Road A-2), continue straight, at which point the road curves to the left and you will be traveling toward the IARC building. Parking is available in the first lot on the right, and overflow parking is available across the street. Visitors should enter the IARC building through door 14.

From Chicago

From Chicago, travel west on the Eisenhower (I-290) to I-88. Exit I-88 at the Farnsworth exit and travel north (right turn). Farnsworth becomes Kirk Road. Follow Kirk Road to Pine Street. Turn right at Pine Street, Fermilab's main entrance.

From O'Hare Airport

From O'Hare, take I-90 east toward Chicago. After just a couple of miles, take I-294 south toward Indiana. From I-294 take the exit to I-88 toward Aurora. From I-88, take the Farnsworth exit. Turn north (right) onto Farnsworth. Farnsworth becomes Kirk Road. Follow Kirk Road to Pine Street. Turn right on Pine Street, the Main Entrance to Fermilab.

From Midway Airport

Take Cicero Avenue North to the Stevenson Expressway South (I-55) to I-355 North (toward Northern Suburbs). Take I-355 to the East-West tollway (I-88). Take I-88 West for approximately 10 miles to the Farnsworth North Exit and turn right. Travel 2.9 miles to the Pine Street entrance to the Fermilab site.
